

Home Movie Day

Saturday, October 16, 2010

Home Movie Day is an event celebrated around the world that lets you see and share your own home movies with an audience of your community. It's a chance to discover why it's important to care about and how to care for these precious films.

Saturday, October 16
11:00AM – 4:00PM
Film Check-In: 11:00AM – 12:00PM
Screening: 12:00PM – 4:00PM

Independence Wharf
Public Room, Ground Floor
470 Atlantic Ave
Boston MA 02110

We're a short walk from South Station.

Bring your super 8, 8mm, and 16mm films to share, or just come to watch! Volunteer archivists inspect films for damage and project them on the big screen. VHS and DVD formats also welcome—please cue ahead of time and limit video clips to 5 minutes.

On-site low budget film transfers!
Live piano accompaniment!
Free coffee!
Good friends and great films!

Event produced by Home Movie Day in collaboration with Boston Street Lab, with thanks to Boston Street Lab space partners Independence Wharf and Cushman & Wakefield. Thanks also to Northeastern University's Department of Art + Design.

For more information: info@bostonstreetlab.org or 617-275-8117
www.homemovieday.com and www.bostonstreetlab.org