

BOSTON STREET LAB

Work in progress

performing arts rehearsals in vacant storefronts

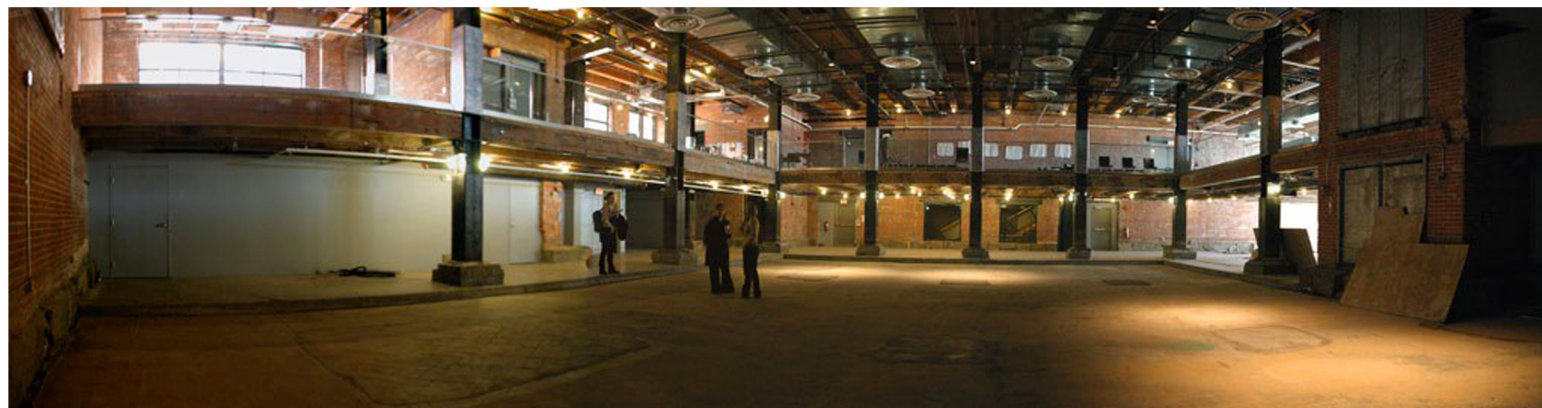

Launch April 22 - May 8, 2011
Featuring the work of Weber Dance

Midway Studios, 15 Channel Center Street
Fort Point Channel, Boston

Details and schedule at www.bostonstreetlab.org

Join us as we pilot the concept of activating storefronts with open rehearsals in the dramatic ground-floor raw space at Midway Studios in Fort Point Channel. Boston Street Lab has transformed the space using a custom designed portable sprung floor from the Boston Dance Alliance.

The featured artist is Weber Dance, which is in rehearsals for a piece to premiere at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center in October 2011. The piece is a collaboration between Weber Dance, poet Andrew Arnett, and author/storyteller/scientist John Turk.
